

Intelligent Activity Streams

Your enterprise-wide social platform, built on the Akumina EXP.

Take Employee Engagement to the Next Level

Intelligent Activity Streams are the new centerpiece of your modern digital workplace, providing true multi-directional communication between your business and your entire workforce. Share and promote content, communicate critical and time sensitive messages, integrate relevant bits of information from thousands of external systems and build a collaborative social space that is representative of your organization's mission.

Commenting and Reactions

Employees will be enabled to share ideas and sentiments, along with the ability to poll other users on different topics.

Kudos Engine

Share praise and recognition for a team member's job well done to the entire organization or a targeted audience.

All-Inclusive Notifications Hub

Stop relying on manual email communication and instead receive notifications from all your applications in one place, so you never miss a moment.

Sticky Prioritized Content

Make sure critical messages are received by pinning them at the top of the feed until they're acknowledged.

Self-Subscription Service

Empower users with the ability to subscribe to content and enjoy a comprehensive stream with everything they need and everything they want from any system.
